

Dipl.-Ing. Dr. Roland Bruckmüller

Senior Consultant

- Main focus on Quality Management, Mechanic Production Technologies, Re-Engineering, Process Optimization und Control
- 28 years of experience in managerial positions in global companies

---

Education

- Study of Technical Physics at the Vienna University of Technology
- Various Education Programs in General Management, Process, Quality and Environmental Management

Industry Experience

- Consumer Electronics
- University Research and Teaching

Focuses and Competencies

- Technology development for serial production
- Integral process improvements, Re-Engineering and Cost reductions in Development, Production and Business processes
- Management of Technology and Organization Improvement projects
- Quality Management: Building management systems in small and big organizations
- Environmental management: Building management systems in several production premises (Austria, Germany, Hungary)
- Carrying out supplier audits for both internal and external customers

Professional Experience within global companies

- Philips Austria: Quality, Environment and Crisis Management, Product Security in Country Organization
- Philips Austria, Video: Material and Technology development of video recorders, Environmental management carried out for video companies in Austria, Germany and Hungary
- Philips Austria, Video: Engineering, Article Management for videocassettes
- Project Management in the area of Technology development
- Giving Lectures and Participation on discussions as an expert in several sectors
- Training young professionals
- Participation on the "Normengebung" project (ÖNorm, ÖVE)
- University Research and Teaching