

Bernard Herman van Weeghel

Senior Consultant

- Development and Implementation of state-of-the-art Procurement Approaches (Strategy, Supplier Audits/- Assessments/-Rating/-Development; Management Development for young purchasing professionals)
- 30 years of experience in managerial positions in global companies

Education; in the Netherlands

- Mulo-B, dipl. 1962
- H.T.S.-E, dipl. 1966
- Pedagogic certificate, dipl. 1971
- Industry certificate N-Em, dipl. 1974

Industry Experience

- Consumer Electronics
- Semiconductors
- Telecommunication/IT

Focuses and Competencies

- Reengineering of procurement and logistical processes
- Development and implementation of procurement approaches
- Improving the product development process towards an interdisciplinary approach with substantial contribution from all parties involved
- Development of methodology for integral improvements in the production maintenance area
- Forming and leading global (virtual) teams

Professional Experience within global companies

- Philips Corporate Purchasing, Eindhoven; global manager Industrial Sourcing Services. Professionalizing and optimizing the areas of Maintenance-Repair-Operation, equipment and industrial production facilities. Development and implementation of an integrated supply concept.
- Philips Belgium; Plant Purchasing Manager and Management Team Member, responsible for improving purchasing performance and purchasing processes.
- Philips Consumer Electronics; Divisional Purchasing, global co-ordination of purchasing electrical-/electronical components.
- Philips Telecom/Data Systems; Plant Purchasing Manager, focus on improving efficiency/effectiveness between strategical and operational procurement.
- Philips Electrologica/Data Systems; responsible for purchasing electrical components, software, hardware and services.