

Business Economist Joachim Schuhfuss

Senior Consultant Logistics

- Focus in supply chain re-engineering
- 40 years working experience in leading positions in international companies

Education

- Educated as Business Economist at the German Academy of Foreign Trade and Logistics, Bremen

Industry Experience

- Transport
- Consumer Electronics
- Domestic Appliances
- Lightening
- Medical Engineering
- Semi-conductors and Components
- Telecommunication and IT

Focuses and Competences

- Analysis and re-engineering of out- and inbound transport processes
- Benchmarking of transportation expenditures
- Contracting and purchase of freights
- Coaching and project support in Logistics area

Professional Experience within global companies

- Philips, The Netherlands; Member of the Global Management Team Forwarding & Distribution
- Philips, Germany; Managing Director of the Philips Industrie-Spedition GmbH. Development and Implementation of an IT-based transport booking- and accounting system
- Philips, Germany; Area leader for the transport economics of the Philips Industrie-Spedition GmbH. Head of the Transport Council Germany, purchasing responsibility for the cargo volume, design and implementation of the distribution transportation for Philips and for the third clients, contributor on national and international logistics seminars.
- Spedition Damco Germany; deputy of the branch manager and the head of the Transport Department; assistant of the executive board and interim head of the Transport Department. Development and Coordination of the sales of transport services.
- Spedition Schulte & Bruns Germany; trained as transport salesman